

Crocus Minimus

Date

1802-1816

Primary Maker

Pierre-Joseph Redouté

Medium

Stipple engraving, hand colored

Description

Botanical drawing of two Crocus Minimus (Spring Beauty) plants with a bulbous brown root, white stem, thin green leaves, and a light purple flower. The plant is depicted twice, along with additional drawing of the flower near the bottom. Plate 81 from volume II of "Les Liliacées".

Dimensions

20 x 16 in. (50.8 x 40.6 cm)