

Pancratium Croceum

Date

1802-1816

Primary Maker

Pierre-Joseph Redouté

Medium

Stipple engraving, hand colored

Description

Botanical drawing of Pancratium Croceum, a plant with a bulbous root, thin green stems and leaves, and drooping orange flowers. The plant is cut in half to fit on the page; details of the flower included near the bottom. Plate 187 from volume IV of "Les Liliacées".

Dimensions

20 x 16 in. (50.8 x 40.6 cm)