

Lachenalia Luteola

Date

1802-1816

Primary Maker

Pierre-Joseph Redouté

Medium

Stipple engraving, hand colored

Description

Botanical drawing of Lachenalia Luteola (opal flower), a plant with a bulbous root, green stem and leaves, a cluster of small drooping yellow flowers, and pink flower buds. Details of the flowers and seeds included near the bottom. Plate 297 from volume V of "Les Liliacées".

Dimensions

20 x 16 in. (50.8 x 40.6 cm)