

Basic Detail Report

---

Pucrasia Macrolopha

Date

1870-1872

Primary Maker

Josef Wolf

Medium

Lithograph, hand colored

Description

Pucrasia Macrolopha (pucras pheasant) depicting male (foreground) and female (midground); the male has a green and yellow head, a brown belly, and back feathers that are gray, black, and tan; the female has a white neck and brown and black feathers. The birds stand in a grassy clearing. From "A Monograph of the Phasianidae or Family of Pheasants," by Daniel Giraud Elliot (1835-1915), New York: 1870-1872.

Dimensions

16 x 20 in. (40.6 x 50.8 cm)