

Long-Legged Plover

Date

1832-1837

Primary Maker

John Gould

Medium

Lithograph, hand colored

Description

Himantopus melanopterus (Long-Legged Plover), a bird with black back, wings, head, and beak, white throat and belly, and long orange legs and feet, standing on grass with plants in the background. Plate 289 from volume IV of "Birds of Europe", London, 1832-1837.

Dimensions

Sheet size: 14 1/2 x 21 1/4 in. (36.8 x 54 cm)